Vice President E. Gardner Jacobs Receives Honorary Doctor of Education Degree From Portia Law School

BCA Members Debate 'Pinning'

By Janet Stefank

On Thursday, June 8, at 7:30 the Bryant Christian Association held its debate on "Pinning" in the Student Union.

The panel consisted of the following debaters:

Pro: Janet Stefank
Dave Christenson

Con: Lynn Lewis
Rev. Canon Kenneth C. Crocker

The members of the BCA had voted unanimously that the topic of "Pinning" was one that should be discussed outright for it is something that is being practiced by many of the Bryant students.

A few of the comments between the panelists were as follows:

Stefank: "When a couple feels enough toward each other that they want to be together and are thinking of marriage in the future, then I think they should get pinned. Pinning adds emphasis to the love and working her in the future years."

Lynn: "There are other ways to show your love other than being pinned."

Janet: "To me, pinning means that a girl loves and feels a deep enough respect toward a boy to remain with him for the rest of her life, and thus, by accepting the pin it is her way of showing it. Thus, it is only a sort of promise to becoming engaged, but why get pinned if you have not gone on enough with other boys to actually be sure that you have found the right one."

Rev. Crocker: "When pinning means I'm yours and you're mine and you don't go out with anyone else, then it is unnecessary and a very possessive and dangerous part of the process of courtship. 'Will you marry me?' is the only thing a boy can say to a girl. They are tied down to each other, but they cannot live the full implications of being married. He is asking more than it is valid to ask. A whole institution has been instituted by the youth of our nation for the purpose of marriage put on and put off. Is it valid to tie down a girl when you're not ready to get married?"

Dave: "Both people want to be tied down, or neither would accept it."

Rev. Crocker: "What does the pin mean? A pin is like a ring, but totally and absolutely different. Love is caring for another person's sake and not for your own's sake. Possessiveness destroys love."

Honored by Portia Law School

Vice President E. Gardner Jacobs

Following the pro and con on this subject, Bill Buchanan, the semester's president, gave the following summary in the debate:

"Today a fraternity pin can mean an agreement, a steady, or an implied agreement for temporary companionship."

"The obligations of a fraternity pin vary between the individuals for self-security, self-recognition, and self-consequence. To others pinning means going steady with a serious intent."

"In conclusion it might be wise to say that a man should not have his pin unless he is really serious enough about a girl; otherwise, his pin has no real meaning and serves no actual and true purpose."

Following the debate, refreshments were served.

The debate proved to be very worthwhile as it gave a well-rounded picture on "Pinning."

Father Mullen to Be Guest Speaker at Newman Club Installation Banquet

By Paul Sette

On Thursday evening, June 22, the Newman Club will hear an inspiring talk on "Federal Aid to Education" by guest speaker, Father Edward Mullen at Oates Tavern.

Father Mullen was educated in Providence public schools and attended Brown University for two years. He served in the 8th Air Force Division as a navigator during World War II for three years and was prisoner of war in Germany for six months. Following the war he graduated from Boston College Law School and became a member of the Rhode Island Bar. He began his religious life in St. Mary's Seminary and was ordained a priest in 1955. Until September 1960, he served as curate in St. Michael's Church; he then was appointed assistant superintendent of parochial schools in Providence. At the present time, he is chaplain of the Newman Club along with Magr. Goughgan.

Guests who will be present at the banquet will include Magr. Arthur T. Goughgan, Sr., and Mrs. H. James Appleby, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Birt, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert O'Connell.

The new officers who will be installed at the banquet are the following:

James Reynolds — President
Al Dean — Vice President
Bob Anderson — Treasurer
Leonora Gaurin — Secretary
Executive Committee:
Louie Andolino
Lee Carlson
Paul Sette
Jerry Witzel

All the members are strongly urged to attend this important banquet which will be the last Newman Club event of the semester.

On May 18, Father Mullen of Providence College spoke on the subject of Courtship and Marriage. His inspiring discourse clarified many problems confronting the young adult before and after marriage. His speech was followed by many intelligent questions asked by the curia Newman Club members and guests.

June 18 marked the last movie meeting held by the Newman Club. Following the nomination for officers, an inspiring movie on the "Life of Cardinal Newman" (1801-1890) was shown. All those who were present will now know why the Catholic clubs of the nation are dedicated to John Cardinal Newman who believed in "Heart Speaking to Hearts."

Retiring President, Neal David, has proven his leadership ability along with his aggressive officers in planning a worthwhile semester. All members of the club feel sure that the new President, Jim Reynolds, will carry on by following Neal's footsteps to another successful term.

Teacher Education Student Receives Teacher Assignment at School for Blind

By Raphael Antrop

Richard Arkasky, a Teacher Education Curriculum student in his third year at Bryant College, will be a student teacher at Oak Hill School for the Blind, located in Hartford, Connecticut, from September, 1961 to January, 1962.

Richard Arkasky

He will teach Typewriting (3 classes) and Office Machines (Dictaphone—1 class) to Junior High and High School classes.

The Oak Hill School for the Blind has an enrollment of 180 students. The class range is from the First grade up to the Senior year in High School. The Senior-year students attend school in the regular Hartford public school system. Some of the courses taught at this special school are English, Geography, Mathematics, Typewriting, History, and Music.

The Alumni Office at Bryant College

By Diane J. Mudd

When we are alumni of Bryant College, having completed two full semesters, we will keep in contact with the College through the Alumni Office with Mr. Kenneth W. Cedergren as Director.

Among the communications we will receive four times a year from the Alumni Office is the "Bryant College Alumni Bulletin," which tells of individual promotions and placements, marriages, births, and deaths of alumni, and various other College news. The "Alumni Bulletin" has a mailing list of 9,000 and is still in contact with Bryant's oldest alumna, a graduate of the Class of 1880.

Because the various classes do not have a class secretary, the Alumni Office acts as class agent for all classes and maintains a permanent alumni record for all alumni. This record lists the activities of an alumna while at Bryant and shows any changes in address or name, as in the case of a maiden name being changed by marriage.

After each mailing of the "Alumni Bulletin," several hundred changes of address are received and recorded so as to keep these records accurate and up to date.

The Alumni Office works with the Alumni Council in planning Homecoming activities and advertising. The Bryant Fund set up by the alumni, which provided some twenty-four scholarships to needy students in 1956, also receives assistance from the Alumni Office.

Letter to the Editors

It is the belief of the fraternity that a great injustice was done to Bryant College and Phi Sigma Nu Fraternity in the article that appeared in the June 14, evening edition, of the Providence Evening Bulletin.

The article stated that the Johnston Memorial Park was left in disorder after a week-end beer party. It also stated that mustard was thrown on the buildings, tables were dumped into the nearby pond, and beer bottles were strewn around the park by the fraternity members.

The general public has been very misinformed, and we wish to clarify the situation. The so-called beer party was an outing sponsored by Phi Sigma Nu Fraternity and its alumni under the supervision of its adviser, a Bryant College teacher, and a police attendant of the park. The picnic lasted from 12 o'clock to 6 o'clock on Sunday, June 11. Refreshments included not only beer, but hamburgers, hotdogs, and soft drinks. This type of picnic is usually referred to as a cook-out, not a beer party!

When the picnic broke up at 6 o'clock, the tables were all on dry ground, intact, not protruding from the park pond. However, there may have been a high tide late that night!!! The members of our fraternity, the students and alumni, did not decorate the walls with mustard, nor did they litter the park with beer bottles.

It may be that Johnston Park needs more supervision; however, we definitely do not believe that this supervision should be brought about by ruining the reputation of a respectable college and a fine fraternity.

President, Phi Sigma Nu

Delta Omega Journeys to Connecticut

Members of Delta Omega Society Visit American Standard Plant

By Pete Goodwin

The members of Delta Omega Professional Society were welcomed at the American Standard plant in Plainfield, Connecticut, Thursday, June 15 at 9:30 a.m. Among those welcoming the Bryant College group was the Plant Manager, Mr. Doug Baldwin. Everyone was at ease, and everything was very "down-to-earth" as the tour began.

The first part of the tour was taken through the front offices. The members saw the dispensary with a nurse in attendance that is used for minor injuries. The members also saw the Quality Control Engineer's office, the Inventory Control Supervisor's office, and the Machine Accounting Department of the plant.

The company stresses very high quality in its products, so the members saw the performance chart in the office of the Plant Superintendent, and the many charts in the Plant Engineer's office, pertaining to the layout of the building and production.

The plant is a new and modern one. It was built in 1956, and began production by 1957. It occupies 530,000 square feet of floor space and produces more than 600,000 units per year. It has a well-equipped maintenance shop because of the distance from any major repair centers. Some 300 persons are employed in production, and about 35 more are employed in the management division.

Electric fork-lift trucks are used in the plant to transport both raw materials and finished products. 85 per cent of the employees in the production angle of the plant are on piece-work.

In the power house, there are two oil burning boilers producing 40,000 pounds of pressure each. The plant also has an emergency generator (Diesel), in case of power failure. The kilns are controlled by the control station in the power house.

When the raw clay, used to make bowls, sinks and the like, is shipped in, it comes by railroad freight cars. The high grade clay is bagged and unloaded by a fork-lift truck. The bulk, or lower grade, clay is unloaded by conveyor and put in silos rising some sixty feet in the air. There are sixteen silos at the plant holding seven to eight carloads of material each. The conveyor goes straight up about 100 feet from the ground and then goes over to dump the clay into the silos. Two railroad sidings are used in loading and unloading material.

The dry clay is removed from the silos, and mixed with steam and water to become "slip." There are many extruding processes used to make "slip," among them being vibrating screens used to purify the "slip."

The company, in the plant, makes only one grade of china: Grade A. All the domestic plants of this company also produce this same grade.

When the "slip" is not felt to be perfect, the whole batch is sent to acres, and is used again after being refined. Plants are used to drain the water from the "slip" and make a cake of clay. The "slip" laboratory is constantly running checks on the "slip," especially on the water content.

Molds of the products are made from plaster-of-Paris. These plaster molds are made from a plastic substance. The plaster, mold the clay into the shapes of bowls, sinks, and the like.

The products are made in nine colors plus white. The colors are mixed and then glazed onto the products. Handlers transport the glazed products to the gas-fired kilns, where they are put on carts, run into the kilns and left there approximately twenty-four hours, when they emerge from the kilns, they are finished products. Some of the fittings are put on at the factory, and some are left so that the who buys the product may have his choice of fittings.

The members of the Society also saw the ways of packaging these pieces of merchandise and noted that every piece made in the Plainfield plant is Vitreous China.

If you cannot recognize the name of American Standard, remember that one of their divisions makes "the best seat in the house."

Dr. William H. Pales
Dean of Men
Bryant College
184 Hope Street
Providence, Rhode Island

Dear Dr. Pales:

You will recall that as a result of our recent meeting concerning the parking problems surrounding Bryant College it was agreed that the Traffic Engineering Department would conduct an additional study to determine the amount of parking actually taking place between 9 A.M. and 10 A.M. in the study area indicated on the plans we gave you at the meeting.

The 700 are available for parking between 9 A.M. and 10 A.M. Our observations confirm the discussion we had at the meeting concerning the concentration of use of the spaces closest to Bryant College. These areas of concentration of usage include all of Cooke Street; Hope Street, between Williams Street and Manning Street; Brook Street, between John Street and Manning Street; the five cross-street blocks between Brook Street and Hope Street, between Power Street and Manning Street; the six cross-street blocks between Hope Street and Cooke Street, between Power Street and Waterman Street; and the three cross-street blocks between Cooke Street and Governor Street, between George Street and Waterman Street.

However, our observations indicate that even within this area of high concentration of usage there were approximately 80 empty spaces between 9 A.M. and 10 A.M. In addition there are approximately 180 empty spaces available that are not restricted in any way, and an additional 70 spaces that are not restricted until 4 P.M. This means that as of the present time there are approximately 430 legal parking spaces being used between 9 A.M. and 10 A.M., and 280 legal parking spaces still available. After 10 A.M. an additional 700 spaces become available.

The claim has been made, emphasizing the seriousness of the parking problem, that people were required to park their cars in areas limited to two-hour parking, and then because of lack of other available spaces move their cars repeatedly at the end of each two-hour period from one space to another. As a result of these observations it is quite apparent that this is not a valid argument. While it is true that it may be necessary or desirable to use some or all of the 280 time-restricted spaces between 9 A.M. and 10 A.M., it is physically possible at 10 A.M. to move each and every one of these vehicles to a new location outside of a time-restricted area which would permit these vehicles to remain parked for the duration of the business day without having to be moved again.

It was also pointed out during our meeting that it would be more desirable to have a set of regulations which would permit the vehicles to remain parked for longer periods, thereby eliminating as much of the juggling of cars from space to space as possible. We agreed at our previous meeting to change the regulation in two or three small areas. These regulations have been written, and will be signed in the immediate future.

It was further agreed that you would explore the possibility of obtaining agreement on the part of residential property owners involved to modify further some of the areas now covered by time regulations.

If there are any further questions concerning any part of this study, please do not hesitate to call me.

Very truly yours,

ROGER T. CHANDLER
Traffic Engineer

An All-Star Chi Gam Team Upsets A Strong Phi Sig Four In Duck Pin Bowling

By George A. Rivard

Under the sharpshooting of Captain Jim Walsh and the splendid teamwork of Steve Healy, Cliff McGinness, E. Chadwick, and Tom Muzio, a come-from-behind Chi Gam team upset the defending champ Phi Sigma Nu in the Bryant College's duck pin bowling league title.

It was a long hard fight with many fine teams in the league, but in the end it was a face-to-face showdown between Phi Sig and Chi Gam; the results were conclusive, and a new champ was crowned.

In addition to the championship trophy, Bryant will also award each member of the winning team an individual trophy from which he can always remember his fine fight for a fine reward. These trophies will be awarded at Chi Gam's pledge formal on the first of July at the Palatka to the following men:

Jim Walsh, Captain; "Chad" Chadwick, Steve Healy, Tom Muzio, Cliff McGinness, Art Jones and Paul Givan.

BCA Holds Banquet At Lincoln Church

By Janet Stefanik

On June 13 the Bryant Christian Association held its banquet at the Woodlawn Baptist Church in Lincoln, Rhode Island.

The evening began with a social hour, followed by a catered supper. A brief intermission was held followed by the showing of a film entitled "One Love—Conflicting Faiths," and a talk on Pakistan by a member of both the Bryant student body and of the Bryant Christian Association, Asif Jah.

Asif Jah was born in what is now West Pakistan, and should be given a good deal of credit, for he is working his way completely through school. Besides having to work, he is very active in outside activities. As is readily seen, Asif has adjusted very well to his new surroundings.

One of the interesting points in Asif's talk was that there are ninety-three million people in Pakistan. These people are divided primarily between the Hindus and the Muslims. There are five mil-

Phi U Downs Dex 7 to 6

By George Rivard

On Thursday, June 15, Phi U beat DEX in softball at the Athletic Field. Phi U put up a strong fight while DEX was defending their first place position in Bryant softball league. It was a close and exciting game. Phi U is especially happy since this is their first win. The players were as follows:

Gwen Thompson, pitcher
Pat Finnigan, catcher
Sherris Plick
Joan Selke
Glory Sefti
Lila Hernandez
Karen Ras
Janet Suricome
Nyla Hattae

Don more women in this country than there are men.

In 1947 Pakistan did not have anything. There were no trained people in the Government, and in business there was a great deal of corruption. Over the past thirteen years the country has come along to a point where it can now stand on its own two feet. The people are very eager to make it a good country—and they have.

Pakistan's population is one-half that of the United States. It has opened new schools for both the girls and the boys.

Asif said, "I do not see any chance of Pakistan going Communist, even though it is surrounded by Russia, for, I believe, as long as a country can fight hunger and disease, Communism will usually not develop."

Following Asif's talk, the installation of officers was held. The outgoing president, Bill Buchanan, installed the new officers who are as follows:

President—Gordon C. Cochrane, Jr.
Vice-President—David Stiles
Secretary—Donna Conard
Treasurer—Clement Ruggeri

The BCA organized with the members having enjoyed themselves immensely. Next wishes were then given to the outgoing members of the Bryant Christian Association—Dorothy Nieminen, Janet Stefanik, and Bill Buchanan.

Law Extended For Service-Disabled Veterans

Some severely disabled veterans, deprived of rehabilitation benefits under the now-defunct Public Law 16, may be eligible under a special extension of this law, the Veterans Administration explained today.

VA said that the Public Law 16, which provided training for seriously disabled World War II veterans ended last July. However, a bill passed by the last Congress extended the law for four specific groups of service-disabled veterans of World War II.

1. Those who were in training last June 1 were granted sufficient time beyond the expiration date to finish their training.

2. Those whose disabilities were so severe that they were unable to pursue sufficient Public Law 16 training prior to the law's expiration.

3. Those who had discharges that formerly barred them from PL 16 training, but whose discharges were since changed and made them now eligible for such rehabilitation.

4. Those whose disabilities were rated service-connected by VA too late for entry in PL 16 training in time to complete a program of rehabilitation.

VA advised WW II veterans, who have been granted service-connected disability awards and fit into any of these four categories, to contact their nearest VA office for assistance if they need retraining as a result of their disabilities.

JOE BELLUCCI RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT OF AOX

On Tuesday, June 13, the brothers

his second term of office as President of Alpha Theta Chi. The following brothers were also elected to office: Vice-President—Denny Orleck, and George Pelitier were elected Treasurer. This is also the second term in office for "Big Daddy Pelitier." Ralph Paolino and Bill Worochuck were elected to the Executive Committee, and Dave Sasporous was elected Sergeant at Arms. The brothers also voted on Best Pledge, and Outstanding brother. The results of this will be announced at the Pledge Banquet, which will be held at Oates' on June 24.

Denny Almonte led AOX into 2nd spot in the fraternity softball league, as AOX defeated KT by the score of 14-6. The game was a lot closer than the score seemed to indicate, as KT kept the pressure on all the way and it wasn't until the sixth inning that the game broke wide open. It was just one of those days when the balls were falling in front of the outfielders, but when the solid hits were needed AOX came through. Denny Almonte hit a line drive home run with two men on base and also contributed two singles. Steve Penick also bit for the circuit leading off for AOX in the first inning. Charlie Morretti, Husky Casey, Harvey Orleck, and George Antoshia had two hits each. The important victory was credited to Charlie Zayat who pitched a strong game. AOX's thoughts are now directed to the play-offs—bring on Alameda. Jim Cimino has not missed a meeting in three semesters.

Veteran's Claim Number Needed for Proper

Far too many of the 320 thousand pieces of mail that flow through the Providence Regional Office of the Veterans Administration each year cannot be properly identified, Mr. John L. Reavey, Regional Manager disclosed today.

Too many veterans and their dependents merely sign their names to correspondence, and names are Almost all of the 170,000 names in the VA's Providence office master index file are duplicated. As might be expected, there are almost 1,000 Smiths and more than 600 Sullivans, but most other names are duplicated scores of times.

The veteran's claim number or "C-number" and his insurance number are his alone. Inclusion of these numbers in correspondence will insure prompt and efficient service and save the time and cost of additional correspondence. If the veteran's "C-number" or insurance number is not known he should include his service serial number and date of birth.

Children of Deceased Veterans Eligible for Pension Payments

Unmarried minor children of deceased veterans may be eligible for pension payments even when their mother, the veteran's widow, is not eligible, the VA pointed out today.

Cases in point are where the widow is ineligible remarried or due to having income in excess of established limits. The ineligibility of the widow does not affect the eligibility of the minor children.

VA officials pointed out that when a widow and children are already on the pension rolls, the subsequent ineligibility of the widow poses no problem. Pension payments to the children are continued after the mother's name is removed from the rolls.

However, widow has never applied for a pension, or whose application was not allowed, due to her remarriage or excessive income, the VA may have no record of any minor children to which payment should be made.

Unmarried minor children of deceased veterans may be eligible for pension until they are 18, or 21 if attending school, provided their own personal incomes would not bar them.

Full details may be obtained at the VA Regional Office, 100 Fountain Street, Providence, Rhode Island, the VA Office, 757 Pleasant Street, New Bedford, Massachusetts, or the VA Office, 144 North Main Street, Fall River, Massachusetts.

SIB's New Officers

By Carolyn Rucinski

Recently SIB held their elections for the coming semester. The newly elected officers are as follows:

President — Mary Ann Bahlstovics
Vice-President — Debbie Stratenburg
Secretary — Connie Nielson
Treasurer — Bobbi Giese
Alumni Secretary — Elaine Linkkil
Historian — Mary Lou Keith

Since many new changes are taking place around campus and within the different organizations, SIB, too, has gone along with the coming trends. The four top officers for the coming semester will serve a one-year term, and the other minor officers will be elected each semester. These officers will be formally installed at the Pledge Formal to be held on July 1 at the Bocce Club. At this time the remaining appointments will be announced by the new president, Mary Ann Bahlstovics.

SIB has another trophy to add to its present collection. At the GLC Banquet, SIB received the Basketball Trophy for taking first place. The stars are very proud of this accomplishment.

A beach party at Barrington Beach was enjoyed and well attended by the sisters. In the last few weeks that remain, the sisters plan to have more get-togethers in order to keep the strong union that exists.

Meaning of "Orphan"

An "orphan" may have one parent alive and still be eligible for educational assistance under the War Orphans Education Program administered by the Veterans Administration.

Officials of the VA pointed this out today to dispel some confusion existing due to the usual understanding that an orphan has lost both parents.

The War Orphans Education Program was established by Congress to give assistance to those children whose veteran-parent's death was the result of disease or injury incurred while in the line of duty in active service.

The death of the veteran-parent from this cause, whether it be father or mother, makes the children "orphans" under the meaning of this law, the VA said, even though the other parent remains alive.

Full information in any phase of this program may be obtained from the VA Regional Office, 100 Fountain Street, Providence 2, R. I., the VA Office, 757 Pleasant Street, New Bedford, Massachusetts, or the VA Office, 144 North Main Street, Fall River, Massachusetts.

Peacetime Vets Receive Benefits

Children of deceased peacetime veterans may be eligible for Orphans' Educational Assistance, John L. Reavey, manager of the VA Regional Office in Providence, said today, providing their veteran-parent died of disease or injury incurred or aggravated in line of duty of AOX.

This program, originally called the War Orphans' Education Assistance Program, was amended by Congress to include those children whose deceased parent had served in the period just before or after World War II, and since the Korean Conflict, with no service in actual war periods.

Full information in any phase of the program may be obtained from the VA Regional Office, 100 Fountain Street, Providence, R. I., the VA Office, 757 Pleasant Street, New Bedford, Massachusetts, or the VA Office, 144 North Main Street, Fall River, Massachusetts.

MEDICAL SECRETARIES

The lunch hour proved to be a great asset. The medical secretaries recuperated from the busy morning, prepared for the afternoon, and observed the hospital personnel. The staff at the Rhode Island proved to be very friendly and helpful.

The group was next taken to the Penthouse on the tenth floor where the Social Service and Admitting Departments told of their functions and procedures.

Observing the Dietary Department at work in the kitchen was really an interesting sight. The trays are filled for each person in the kitchen on an assembly-line system where members of the dietary team place different items on the tray as it slowly moves by them. Then the trays are brought to each floor by machinery as dietary aides are waiting for them. They are then quickly delivered to the patients.

To end the tour, the girls were shown the laboratories and the X-ray Department. As they entered one of the laboratories, they saw a pathologist examining different parts of the body that had just been brought down from the operating room. There were many surprised expressions. These examinations are done for an exact diagnosis of the case. In the X-ray Department, Dr. Martineau showed X-rays of broken bones, stomach ulcers, and various types of brain damage which were all detected through different types of X-ray.

Before leaving the class saw several Bryant graduates which proved to them that the Rhode Island Hospital is truly an interesting and friendly place in which to work.
